Organized by the Pittsburgh Chinese Restaurant Association and performed by the Shih Chien University's Ro Han Mem Taiwanese Cultural Troupe. This performance incorporates the collection of local performance art via the Sung-Jiang Battle Array, Hakka folk songs, and Indigenous dances to present the beauty of the Taiwanese culture. The Troupe, which consists of students from the Kaohsiung Campus, performs musicals containing a variety of songs, dances, and battle array performances that are representative of the Fukienese, Hakka, and Indigenous cultures. The program is divided into three parts: Taiwanese Folklore, Taiwanese Epic, and Taiwanese Musical.

Because OCA-Pittsburgh is one of the sponsoring organizations, it will share part of receipts from our ticket sales and also the final profits. Your participation will not only support this wonderful cultural event, but also financially benefit OCA-Pittsburgh directly.
